A Special Message from Kedah Menteri Besar
Sekapur Sireh 1
Foreword by the Kedah State Secretary

A warm Selamat Datang to Kedah!

I’m thrilled that you’re reading my state’s Visitors’ Directory 2020, which was prepared especially for valued travellers such as yourself.

Kedah is indeed Malaysia’s most unique state, and I say that not just because I am the State Secretary but the facts speak for themselves. We have the oldest known civilisational history and archaeological site, Sungai Batu, not just in Malaysia but in all Southeast Asia. And we have a geological landscape and rock formation history of over 500 million years!

But more than our fascinating history as an ancient kingdom, Kedah has so many other special heritage features be they natural, cultural, culinary, recreational and more. Even our northern dialect of Malay is unique in the Malay Archipelago. As visitors, you will be mesmerised by our endless wonders.

But most of all it is our people, the Kedahans, who are always friendly and ever welcoming to all visitors to partake of our treasures, culture and lifestyle. In line with the spirit of shared prosperity, we want everyone to have a stake in and share the well-being of tourism; from villagers to venue or business owners and even to all visitors themselves.

Kedah’s pie is big, so to speak and there’s more than enough for everyone when enjoyed responsibly and sustainably - and that is what shared prosperity is about.

So again, on behalf of the government and people of this ancient sultanate yet modern state of Kedah - we welcome you. Do come to visit us in 2020 and even beyond.

Sincerely,

DATO’ PADUKA AMMAR BIN DATO’ SHAIKH MAHMOOD NAIM DPSS., DSDK., JSD., SSS., AMK., AMN., BCK.
Kedah State Secretary
2020 will be the best year ever to visit our unique state of Kedah, as part of Visit Malaysia Year (VMY2020).

I can assure you, our cherished visitors, that all of us in Kedah are laying out the proverbial red carpet for you to partake not just of a visit, but to experience the shared prosperity that’s part of the vision of Malaysia’s own Kedah-born Prime Minister, Tun Mahathir Mohamad.

We have many new attractions and packages to complement the popular old. Some things are newly rediscovered such as previously forgotten but fantastic caves or trails, while many others are our once-hidden heritage treasures newly introduced to the world be they natural or cultural and even both.

Be rest assured that Kedah offers exciting things in store for every kind of visit and visitor, be it for an individual explorer, a special travel group, a romantic getaway or a family staycation. Just dig a little, beginning with this booklet, and you will find what you seek in Kedah, the gem of Malaysia.

Selamat datang, na!
Sincerely,

YB ASMIRUL ANUAR BIN ARIS

Langkawi
Selamat Datang all friends from all corners of Earth, not just to Malaysia but especially to Kedah.

Kedah is indeed a special place in terms of history, geography, nature, adventure, culture, cuisine and everything in between. And this Visitors' Directory 2020, will help you discover why and how this ancient yet modern Sultanate of Kedah has so much to offer.

As the designated Champion of the Tourism Productivity Nexus of Malaysia, I am particularly focused on ensuring that our tourism sector is not only productive, but also inclusive for all stakeholders and most important, sustainably so. For Kedah, this means that visitors like yourself will not only enjoy your stay in this lovely state, but also be assured that your visit brings benefits to the local people and moreover when you come back here anytime later, you and the local people can still reap the same benefits or even more. Plus we also help educate our people on environmental awareness with long-term business productivity. That's sustainability!

This is all in line with the idea and advocacy of Shared Prosperity, which is a core of our record-holding Prime Minister Tun Mahathir Muhamad’s vision for Malaysia, where everything from agriculture to industry to tourism mutually feeds and sustains each other. For Kedah, you can see this in even little things such as Kedah tour packages which weave in different places or activities to give you, our visitor, a mix of memorable experiences of Kedah, while sharing honest income for many local folks.

So be assured that we are working for everyone's well-being, from yourself as our valued guest to all stakeholders and that includes our beautiful environment.

Enjoy Kedah!

Kuala Muda district has an envious mix of records. It now has Kedah’s biggest city, Sungai Petani, that almost rivals Penang’s George Town in vibrancy. It also has some of the oldest archaeological and architectural remains in Malaysia in its Bujang Valley. In fact it boasts Southeast Asia’s oldest civilizational site at Sungai Batu, an ancient iron-smelting industrial centre dating back to the 6th century BC. Besides these, it also still has natural treasures such as the Merbok River basin with the world’s richest mangrove forest species diversity, and one of the only oyster breeding farms as well. And all these are located within the great prehistoric geological area of Jerai Geopark (which it shares with Yan district), boasting various unique rockery and landscape formations up to 500 million years old that culminate in Mount Jerai itself, at over 1200m high the tallest mountain and a historic mariner’s landmark in Malaysia’s northern coast.

Welcome to Kuala Muda
Kuala Muda Attractions

Merdeka Beach

Famous partly due to its Malay name Pantai Merdeka meaning ‘Independence Beach’, it is also the closest beach to Sungai Petani city about a half-hour away. You get beautiful views of the coast and back to Mount Jerai, Kedah’s historic landmark. This place is popular also for local food at the stalls or restaurants, including the delicacy ‘mee udang’ or prawn noodle dish that is more associated with Sayak Island and Tanjung Dawai town across the river, both accessible by boat. Swimming is possible although the beach is naturally a little muddy but clean. Part of the beach has been built-up to control erosion and to have a seaside walkway. At the foothill of nearby Bukit Penjara are unique red rock formations where fossils have been found dating back 450 million years. There’s also a World War II remnant of a British concrete pillbox bunker. Romantic sunset views are a daily given and surrounding resorts or chalets provide good accommodation.

Merbok River Nature Activities

Much of Kuala Muda’s nature attractions are along the Merbok River. Among them is the virgin mangrove forest which is special in that it contains the world’s highest diversity of mangrove species in one location. Boat tours can be taken from the Semeling Jetty Complex, where there is also an example of a mangrove charcoal-making brick igloo or ‘gok’ and a good nature-geological museum. The area is in fact part of Jerai Geopark that celebrates the region’s prehistoric rock landscape formed over 500 million years ago and can be seen today. Just upstream from the Jetty is a traditional ‘langgai’ fish trap of a type that is rare in the world. Elsewhere along Merbok River, oyster cultivation is also found.

Tanjung Dawai Seaside Town

A bustling fisheries town just half an hour from Sungai Petani, Tanjung Dawai is popular both with Kedahans and other Malaysians for several reasons. These include its waterfront jetty with boat rides to nearby Pantai Merdeka beach and other destinations, fresh seafood straight from the wharf and traditional marine products such as dried and salted or preserved fish. Local cuisine such as ‘mee udang’ (prawn noodles) and ‘ikan bakar’ (grilled fish) are also must-eats for visitors, with many making a beeline to the famous Medan Selera Ikan Bakar food centre. For the curious, the LKIM fish landing jetty is the place to catch a glimpse of busy fisherfolk at work when boats come in.
CARNIVALL WATER THEME PARK

This is Kedah's biggest water theme park, located inside Cinta Sayang Resort which is billed as the only integrated resort in northern Malaysia boasting a resort hotel, convention centre, golf course and more. The Carnivall waterpark has four types of water slides, a lazy river, children’s pool and even a wall-climbing arena, plus other complete amenities including food outlets. With a lively ambiance full of mostly local people enjoying the recreational water facilities, you can feel the friendly Kedah atmosphere in the park. Team-building, telematch and other group or family events are also offered in Carnivall.

LEMBAH BUJANG & SUNGAI BATU ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES

Kuala Muda especially the Lembah Bujang valley is home to some of the oldest historic sites not just in Malaysia but also in the region. Bujang Valley was dotted with numerous small ancient ‘candi’ or temples from around the 4th century onwards when local Malay folk were either Hindu or Buddhist adherents before Islam’s arrival. Several candi and period artifacts are preserved at the Muzium Arkeologi Lembah Bujang in Merbok. Nearby Sungai Batu is even earlier, dating from at least 535 BC and is the oldest known civilisational site in Southeast Asia. Interestingly it was an iron processing and exporting centre. It is best to visit these sites with a knowledgeable guide.
LAMAN FIG SUHANIS
STRAWBERRY FARM

A strange attraction indeed as the two main plants at this farm are strawberry and fig, both of which are not native to lowland tropics like here in coastal Malaysia, but they grow very well in this locale while they usually fail elsewhere. It began as a hobby for the owner but after successfully growing the plants, it viralled on social media and visitors started coming by the thousands from near and far. Today the farm, located at Semeling, sells up to 80kg of strawberries per day from about 8500 plants, not to mention figs and other products on its 1.5 hectare land. Strawberry and other flavoured juices, chocolate, ice cream or cakes are available here.

TAMAN JUBLI PERAK
(SILVER JUBILEE PARK)

A perfect place to seek refuge from the hustle and bustle of Sungai Petani yet barely 5 minutes from the city centre, this tranquil park has all the basic amenities plus jogging trail, children’s playground and of course, nice old big trees. The name marks the 25th year of then Kedah Sultan Abdul Halim Muadzam Shah’s reign. Sungai Petani’s main mosque, Masjid Sultan Mudzaffar Shah is just beside the park on Jalan Sungai Layar.
Located within Gunung Jerai Forest Reserve, Tupah Recreational Park is a 2km stretch of gushing river with a series of rapids and low falls gushing into swirling pools. Hence the local name Lubuk Tupah, where ‘lubuk’ means ‘whirlpool’. Small roundish gravel stones, or ‘kelikir’ in Malay, are abundant on the riverbed. Popular for swimming and picnicking, there’s also a rock cliff for climbing enthusiasts, plus a 10km trail that leads all the way towards Bujang Valley Archaeology Museum in Merbok.

The ‘Jam Besar’ or old Clock Tower on Jalan Ibrahim marks the historic ‘kilometer zero’ of Sungai Petani. The city grew from a crossroads trading town into what is now the most populous city in Kedah. But the Clock Tower, built in 1936 to mark the wedding Silver Jubilee of King George V and Queen Mary the year before, still ‘dominates’ the feel of the city. A few colonial era buildings still stand in the area of Jalan Ibrahim, a main thoroughfare until today, lined with pre-Independence shophouses. The Neo-Classical and Mughal-style old HSBC Bank building, within view of the Jam Besar, is another famous landmark of Sungai Petani.
While Kedah shares staple food ingredients such as rice and noodles with the region, there are recipes so original to the state until it bears its name. Laksa Kedah is one such must-try, a fish-based soupy rice noodle dish. For a local cuppa, try our local coffees such as ‘kopi Kedah’ and ‘kopi Cap Gantang’ and you won’t go wrong.

Essential Information

We trust that everything goes well in your visit to Kedah. But just in case, here are essential contacts and other useful information that would help in ensuring that your stay is on track.
If ancient traders could travel to Kedah since nearly 2000 years ago, you can too. Located on the northwest coast of Peninsular Malaysia, it is one of the country’s northern gateways bordering Thailand to its north. You can travel to Kedah by air, road, rail or sea even on a cruise ship.

BY AIR
Malaysia Airlines, AirAsia, Malindo Air and others operate daily air services direct from Kuala Lumpur to Kedah. You can take flights from Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) or Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport (Subang Skypark) to Sultan Abdul Halim Airport in Kepala Batas just 20 minutes’ drive from Alor Setar, or to Langkawi Airport.

BY ROAD
Just a five-hour drive from Kuala Lumpur brings you to Kedah using the North-South Expressway (PLUS). Air-conditioned express buses to Kedah can be taken at KL’s Terminal Bersepadu Selatan or Hentian Duta bus hubs. Bus services go to Alor Setar, Sungai Petani, Gurun, Jitra, Kulim, Baling and Bukit Kayu Hitam at the Thai border. Buses, taxis and even e-hailing car services are also available from neighbouring states to Kedah and vice versa.

BY RAIL
Fast and comfortable KTM Electric Train Services (ETS) express trains run from KL Sentral station in Kuala Lumpur daily and stop at major towns in Kedah including Alor Setar, Sungai Petani, Gurun and Anak Bukit before proceeding to neighbouring Perlis. Visitors heading for Langkawi should disembark at Alor Setar or Arau in Perlis and proceed to the respective jetty terminals to arrange their transfer. The border town of Bukit Kayu Hitam is the entry point for visitors who are arriving from Sadao, Thailand. There is an Immigration and Customs checkpoint at the border crossing that is open for travellers from 6.00am to midnight (Malaysian time).
GETTING AROUND

SELF-DRIVE
Rent a car at the airport or via car rental services and explore Kedah on the comprehensive network of roads around the state.

BUSES AND TAXIS
There are transport terminals in each city and major town in Kedah for local buses, interstate buses and taxis with a major hub in Alor Setar known as Terminal Shahab Perdana at Jalan Langgar. In Sungai Petani, the main bus terminal is at Jalan Langgar, Alor Setar. Get to various towns in Kedah and other major destinations in Peninsular Malaysia especially Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Melaka, Kuantan and Johor Bahru by bus. For festive and holiday seasons tickets must be booked in advance.

GETTING TO LANGKAWI

BY AIR
Malaysia Airlines operates daily air services to Langkawi from Kuala Lumpur, while its subsidiary, Firefly, offers daily flights to Langkawi from the Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah Airport in Slim and Penang. AirAsia provides direct flights to Langkawi even from Singapore.

BY SEA
Express ferries provide regular services to Langkawi from Kuala Kedah in mainland Kedah and Kuala Perlis in the neighbouring state of Perlis. The sea ride from Kuala Kedah takes about 1 hour 15 minutes. Ferry services to Langkawi are also available from Penang as well as Satun, Thailand.

BY RAIL
Travellers heading for Langkawi may refer to the section above and disembark at Alor Setar or also Aras in Perlis and proceed to the respective jetty terminal at Kuala Kedah or Kuala Perlis for ferries to the island.

The Malay Language or Bahasa Melayu is a relatively easy language to learn and speak. Pronunciation generally follows the spelling, with “sy” in Malay pronounced as the “sh” sound in English. The only slight uncertainty being “e” which can be pronounced either like the ‘her’ or ‘hey’ sound but generally you will still be understood even if it is mixed up.

• While visiting any venue where you meet local people, do be respectful of local customs and traditions; a friendly smile will never go wrong and just ask someone if unsure.

• Handshakes are generally acceptable for both men and women, but observant Muslim ladies or even men may acknowledge introductions to the opposite gender simply by nodding and smiling. A Malaysian welcome greeting is the right palm placed over the heart with a slight nod and the reply is the same. The more traditional greeting or salam resembles a handshake but uses both hands without the grasp. After the hands touch, they are lightly brought to the chest to mean the greeting is heartfelt.

• Footwear must always be removed when visiting homes or places of worship such as mosques and temples. Most mosques provide robes and scarves for ladies, and sarongs for men wearing shorts. When sitting on the floor, men sit cross-legged while women normally sit with their legs tucked to either side.

• To eat and also to give or receive something, the right hand is always used (unless it is a large item where both hands are needed).

• When pointing, it is preferable to use the right hand’s thumb with the other four fingers folded under, rather than the forefinger especially when pointing to a person. Always ask for permission before taking photographs of someone or when inside someone’s home.

• The country’s Muslim majority (about two-thirds of the population) does not consume pork or any porcine products nor liquor or alcoholic beverages. Thus, toasting is not a common practice.

• The weather is generally quite warm with occasional torrential showers. Cotton or light clothes, rubber shoes and hats are suitable. Note that some establishments such as upmarket restaurants may not allow slippers, shorts or sleeveless.
